HONORS

HIGHLIGHTS of SCHOOL

DEDICATION

To Miss Carolyn Bufkin, without whose wonderful disposition and helping hand many of us would not have lasted through four years and graduation;

To Professor Lance Goss for his genuine and unceasing interest and work in and with the students of Millsaps;

To Dr. Vernon L. Wharton, writer, scholar, lecturer-deluxe, and long time good friend to Millsaps students;

We humbly dedicate this, the 1952 Bobashela.

The BAND

The Millsaps Band, tho' hampered by the lack of money and a practice period this year, has worked wonders under the guidance of its director, Mr. Arthur Colaianni. An orchid to Mr. Coley and his band.

ATHLETICS AT MILLSAPS

Millsaps maintains football, baseball, and basketball teams in the Dixie Conference. Millsaps athletes are men who play these sports for the love of the game. They devote their time and energy to these sports for the joy of winning and participating. These athletes are at Millsaps for an education first—for athletics second.

Millsaps captured the Dixie Conference Football Championship this year for the first time in the history of the school. In basket-ball, the Millsaps five won the consolation bracket for the second consecutive year.

The Majors traveled to Pensacola, Florida, in search of their first win of the season against the Naval Air Station "Goslins," but were defeated by the score of 13-7. The Major's lone score was made by Kalil, with T. W. Lewis adding the extra point.

The Majors gained their first victory of the season by defeating the Sewanee Tigers by the score of 7-6. Glenn Cain scored the Major's touchdown on a 23 yard quarterback sneak, and T. W. Lewis adding the winning extra point.

Meeting their arch rivals next, the Majors took the Choctaws in stride by the score of 12-7. Great defensive work on the part of the forward wall and the scoring of Kalil and Collins gave the Majors their most prized win of the season.

In the next game, with Howard, the Majors won the conference championship by defeating the Bulldogs 27-14. This game was marked by the brilliant generalship and passing of Eddie Collins. Kalil, Parker, Cain, and Scott scored the TD's with Parker adding 3 extra points.

The Majors met defeat in the closing game of the season at the hands of the Hendrix College Indians. Glorioso scored the only Millsaps touchdown in this 14-6 defeat.

In basketball, the Majors were led to the consolation championship by two time All-Dixie Phil Wallace. The Major five was rounded out by Glenn Cain, Bob Gorday, Jim Allen, and Rod Jeffreys.

How the Majors will do in baseball remains at this writing, to be seen. Coach "Sammy" has four returning lettermen to build his team around — Glorioso, Woods, Kurts, and Townes.

Millsaps also maintains a fine program of intramurals in speedball, basketball, softball, golf, and tennis for those who don't enter intercollegiate athletics.

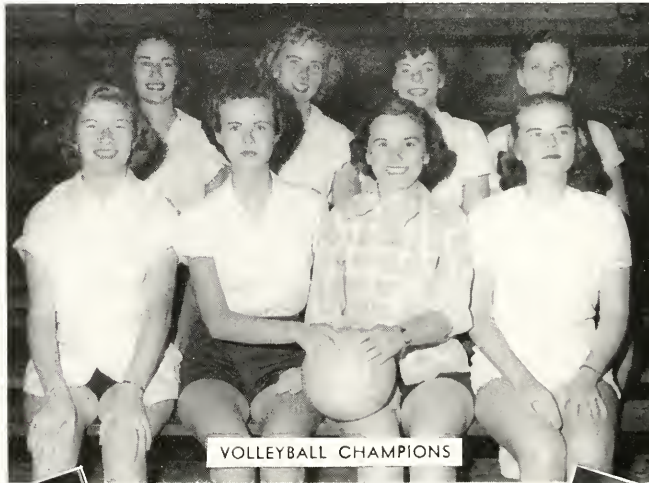

In speedball, the Pikes took the crown by going undefeated. The Ministers were runner-ups and the Kappa Sigs placed third. The All-Star team was composed of four Pikes—Dunbar, Whitehouse, Roebuck, and Smith; four Ministers—Anderson, White, Bowers, and Bolton; two Kappa Alphas—Allen and Crisler; and two Kappa Sigs—Moore and Clement.

The Independents took the basketball crown with the Pikes second and the Kappa Sigs third. Two Pikes—Roebuck and Frazier; two Kappa Sigs—Woods and Powell; and Independent John Crabb made up the All-Star team.

Girls'

"Mim'ries?" Surely we, the co-eds, have many things we remember as we think back on the activities and members of the girls' athletic department. Yes, but what are they? The good, clean, stiff competition in the intramural program can't be forgotten . . . an early morning hike with a group of "sleepy-eyed" girls; being rewarded for the effort of pulling oneself out of bed by the smell of coffee, bacon, and cheese from the beautiful open fire . . . trip to Memphis to ride the "crawling stairs" . . . Missie . . . weekends on the Coast . . . the famous words, "Rise up, O flame!" . . . the boys co-operating at calling our ball games . . . Miss D's willingness to make the girls "happy" . . . her friendliness, helpfulness, ability to do so much and her winning smile, as well as the shining example of life, go down through the years with us . . . for the more energetic there was the nine hole golf course . . . there was Dee with her "Smile, please!" . . . confusion between Mim's and Peeble's voices and laughs . . . swimming in October as well as May—salt water or muddy water . . . retreats with their fun, food, fellowship, and friends . . . curtain fund . . . Peggie racking up many points with her "southpaw" shot . . . Kazar, another "south paw," shows how to have fun on the softball diamond . . . Ah! what fun the Majorettes have decorating for Christmas . . . Tan and Mim face the "Court of Decel!" and plead guilty . . . long, lanky Lucy . . . intramural program conflicts with the boys . . . the three musketeers in a green Plymouth . . . tennis trips and an overloaded station wagon . . . Red Sails In the Sunset . . . Oh! that yellow convertible . . . the Limpin' Lassies . . . ping pong partners . . . the Jets . . . folk dancing . . . 'tis amazing what goes on "behind the scene" just before tap day . . . stunt night . . . tricks of all sorts at any time of day or night . . . for the first time in years we had a boy on our retreat . . . swimming and diving lead to sore muscles . . . and we'll always remember the solo's that turn out to be duet's . . .

In our "Mim'ries" we'll always remember other names from years back: Peggy Bi, Little Un, W. D., Suey, Chris, Penny, Jean, Onie Margaret Marion, and others. As we mention these "immortals," let our memories linger on . . .

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

Each year a faculty committee nominates a number of students for inclusion in WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES considering their scholarship, their cooperation and leadership in academic and extra-Curricular activities, their citizenship and service to the school, and their promise of future usefulness. This is one of the highest honors a Millsaps student can attain. This year eleven students were selected.
